Transcript

The [illegible] is a correct transcript of all orders and proceedings in reference to the incorporation of the Village of Lore City, as shown by the Journal of the Commissioners of Guernsey County, Ohio.

There is also attached hereto the [illegible] map with the amendment designated thereon, petition, proof of publication, and all other papers on file relating to said matter in the office of the Commissioners of said County.

"Cambridge, Ohio, June 3rd, 1903.

Commissioners met in regular session according to adjournment, J. T. Beggs, J. P. Smith, and L. T. Moore being present. Minutes of previous meeting read and approved.

In the matter of the petition :
of the incorporation of Lore City :

This day a petition duly signed by more than fifty electors residing in the territory in said petition described praying for the organization of a village under the laws of Ohio to be designated and called the Village of Lore City, with an accompanying map was presented to the Board of County Commissioners of Guernsey County, Ohio, whereupon said Board ordered that said petition together with the map accompanying the same be filed in the office of the Auditor of Guernsey County, and be at all times subject to the inspection of any person concerned, and there be now set for the hearing of the said petition. It is further ordered that said petition be set for hearing on the 22nd day of August, 1903, at the Commissioners office at the Court House at Cambridge, Guernsey County, Ohio, and that N. J. Davidson, Clerk be and designated in said petition as the agent of the petitioners of said facts shown by said petition."

"Special Session of the Commissioners of Guernsey County, Ohio, Aug. 5th, 1903. Commissioners met as per order in the matter of the petition of the Village of Lore City. Beggs, Smith, and Moore, being present."

In the matter of the petition :
of the Village of Lore City. :

Order and now this day the petitioners for the Village of Lore City and others in their evidence in support of the averments of said petition; and also proof that proper notice had been given according to law; and also came Alva Eckelberry, and by the property owners within the limits of said proposed corporation, and remonstrated against said real estate being included within the territory of said Village of Lore City.

Whereupon said Commissioners adjourned said hearing to August 22nd, 1903, at one o'clock P. M. in the Commissioners office in the Court House of Guernsey County, Ohio."

The State of Ohio, Guernsey County, ss,

In the matter of the Organization of the Village # of Lore City, in Guernsey County, Ohio # Journal Entry.

The Board of Commissioners of Guernsey County, Ohio, met in adjourned session this day, August 22nd, 1903 to further hear and consider the matter of the petition of A. L. Davis, and others to obtain the organization of the territory in the petition described into a village in accordance with the laws and having in open sitting, heard all persons desiring to be heard for or against the granting of said petition, and having considered the evidence offered by Alva Eckelberry, against said petition, and also the evidence offered by the petitioners in favor of the granting of the said petition, and being fully advised, find that said petition contains all the matters required by law, that the statements are true, that the name of said Village as given in the said petition is appropriate, that the limits of the proposed corporation are accurately described, that the map of the same filed with the petition is accurate, that a sufficient number as required by law of the persons whose names are subscribed to the petition, are